The Department of Decision Sciences and Managerial Economics comprises three research areas: Management Information Systems, Operations Management, and Business Economics. The Department now invites applications for multiple tenure-track faculty positions in the area of Operations Management commencing Fall 2023. Applicants for all professoriate ranks will be considered.

Applicants should have (i) a PhD degree in Operations Management, or related disciplines (by the time reporting for duty); (ii) high competence in research and demonstrated research interest in, but not limited to, business analytics, supply chain management, service operations and (iii) strong commitment to teaching and services. The appointee will teach undergraduate and postgraduate courses offered by the Department. Appointments will normally be made on a contract basis for up to three years, which, subject to performance and mutual agreement, may lead to a longer-term appointment or substantiation later. Senior applicants should have an outstanding track record of research and teaching accomplishments.

The application should include a letter of interest, CV, recent teaching-related information such as teaching evaluations and at least three reference letters send directly to us by the referees. Applications may be made online via the CUHK career site, via e-mail (dse@cuhk.edu.hk), or sent to Chairman, Department of Decision Sciences and Managerial Economics, Room 901, Cheng Yu Tung Building, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Shatin, Hong Kong.

We will invite shortlisted candidates for in-person interviews at the INFORMS Annual Meeting (2022) or online interviews right after the conference. Interested candidates are advised to submit the application by September 30, 2022 with information of their presentations at INFORMS, if any.
